Dear Teen-agers:

I was thrilled to receive your letter of gratitude yesterday. I noticed with interest the many signatures at the bottom of the page and remembered meeting many of you personally. I believe that your letter is one of the first of its kind that I have ever received, even though I have spoken to hundreds of teen-age groups just like yours across the country.

I was thrilled and challenged by the unusual interest you showed in the things we discussed together. I do believe that God will work through you to accomplish great things in His kingdom in the years ahead. Let me urge you to continue to grow in the "grace and knowledge of ~~Our~~ Lord Jesus Christ", so that your mature years will be years of service and honor to our Father in heaven.

Your brother in Christ,

John Allen Chalk
